

LLM in International Trade, Investment and Business Law

The LLM programme in International Trade, Investment and Business Law is a collaborative programme between UWC and the University of Pretoria (UP). In terms of the collaboration intakes are rotated between the universities. The next intake at UWC will be in February 2024.

This course focuses on world trade, business and investment law, with a specific focus on the interests of Africa in the context of globalisation. Students with good academic records are invited to apply.

The standard coursework Masters format is two modules and a mini-thesis of 30 000 words (Mode II).

INTERNATIONAL TRADE, INVESTMENT AND BUSINESS LAW SPECIALISATION:

Students register and spend one semester of full-time coursework at UWC (Feb – July 2024). The second semester is used to complete the research component of the degree – this should preferably be done at UWC, but can be done on a distance basis.

STRUCTURE:

During the first semester of 2024 at UWC, students enroll for the following two modules:

- International Economic and Investment Law (presented full-time)
- International Business and Regional Trade Law (presented full-time)
- NOTE THAT THESE MODULES ARE OFFERED ON A FULL-TIME BASIS, WITH LECTURES FROM 9:00 – 4:30 DAILY (OR AT LEAST 4 DAYS A WEEK). It is thus not possible to complete this programme on a part-time basis.
